NOTE BY THE TECHNICAL SECRETARIAT

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS FOR A TRAINING COURSE ON FULFILLING DECLARATIONS AND INSPECTIONS OBLIGATIONS
UNDER ARTICLE VI OF THE CHEMICAL WEAPONS CONVENTION
7 – 25 FEBRUARY 2022

1. The Technical Secretariat (hereinafter “the Secretariat”) is pleased to announce that an online training course on fulfilling declarations and inspections obligations under Article VI of the Chemical Weapons Convention (hereinafter “the Convention”) will be held from 7 to 25 February 2022.
2. The training course has two main objectives: to facilitate the submission by National Authorities of accurate and timely annual declarations required under Article VI of the Convention (“Activities Not Prohibited Under This Convention”); and to provide practical guidance to States Parties on receiving and escorting OPCW inspections. The training course is also intended to raise general awareness among stakeholders of the requirements under Article VI of the Convention regarding national implementation.
3. This course is primarily intended for representatives of National Authorities and relevant stakeholders, particularly in chemical industry and trade associations, who are involved in compiling data, preparing national declarations and facilitating inspection processes.
4. The course will provide participants with an opportunity to refresh and enhance their knowledge and skills relating to Article VI obligations. The course will also provide information on recent developments around Article VI and offer participants an opportunity to share experiences, ask questions, and clarify and discuss related issues.
5. The training course comprises the following three steps:
 - (a) self-paced learning using resources available on the OPCW online learning platform, TalentSoft (7 to 18 February 2022);
 - (b) a three-hour live session (online): declaration exercises using the Electronic Declaration Information System (EDIS) software and question and answer (Q&A) session (21 and 22 February 2022); and
 - (c) a three-hour live session (online): mock inspection exercise and Q&A (23 and 24 February 2022).

Participants are expected to attend one of the live sessions under steps (b) and (c) above on either of the two dates provided.

6. The topics covered by this training course are as follows:
 - (a) training objectives, programme overview, pre- and post-training activities;
 - (b) updates on Article VI-related issues;
 - (c) status of national implementation of Article VI of the Convention (declarations and inspections);
 - (d) activities monitored under Article VI of the Convention and related declaration requirements;
 - (e) identification of declarable activities;
 - (f) State Party experience and practice;
 - (g) electronic declaration tools – EDIS and Secure Information Exchange (SIX);
 - (h) mandate of OPCW industry inspections and the role of the National Authority and industry in receiving and escorting inspections;
 - (i) pre-inspection planning, on-site and post-inspection activities;
 - (j) the next steps following an OPCW inspection; and
 - (k) contribution of the Article VI verification regime to countering terrorism.

7. States Parties are requested to disseminate information on this training course to the national stakeholders. Participants must:
 - (a) be involved, at the national level, in the fulfilment of Article VI obligations (identification of declarable activities, preparation of annual declarations, receiving and escorting OPCW inspections);
 - (b) not have participated in this training course in the past five years;
 - (c) have a good command of English, both oral and written;
 - (d) have completed the OPCW e-learning modules described below (available online at <https://www.opcw.org/opcw-e-learning>):
 - (i) Identification of Declarable Activities Under Article VI of the Convention;
 - (ii) Introduction to Article VI Declarations;
 - (iii) Introduction to the Electronic Declaration Information System (EDIS);
 - (iv) Introduction to Secure Information Exchange (SIX); and
 - (v) Preparing for and Receiving an Article VI Inspection by Plant Site; and
 - (e) have completed and submitted the Self-Assessment and Training Action Plan Form (Annex 2).

8. Interested applicants are invited to submit their application online through Eventus, the OPCW event management system (<https://apps.opcw.org/eventus/Home/EventDetail/319>). Applicants must create an account before registering for the event (Google Chrome is recommended). Each application must be endorsed by the Head or Chief Coordinator of the National Authority of the applicant's State Party through the submission of the endorsement form (attached as Annex 1 to this Note), which must be signed and stamped.
9. Interested applicants are also requested to complete the Self-Assessment and Training Action Plan Form (attached as Annex 2 to this Note) and upload it to Eventus before the application deadline (17 January 2022). It is strongly recommended that applicants use the Microsoft Word version of the self-assessment form.
10. Additional information about the course may be obtained from the Implementation Support Branch of the International Cooperation and Assistance Division of the Secretariat. The contact persons are Mr James Pettit (Email: james.pettit@opcw.org) and Mr Victor Barros Correia (Email: victor.barros-correia@opcw.org).
