

NOTE BY THE TECHNICAL SECRETARIAT*INVITATION TO APPLY FOR AN EXECUTIVE PROGRAMME
ON INTEGRATED CHEMICALS MANAGEMENT
UNITED KINGDOM OF GREAT BRITAIN AND NORTHERN IRELAND
24 – 27 SEPTEMBER 2018*Purpose of the course

1. The Technical Secretariat (hereinafter “the Secretariat”) of the Organisation for the Prohibition of Chemical Weapons (OPCW) wishes to inform Member States that it will organise an Executive Programme on Integrated Chemicals Management. The programme will be held in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, from 24 to 27 September 2018.
2. The programme is intended for chemists, chemical engineers, and other relevant professionals from government, industry, and other institutions of the OPCW Member States who assume managerial and leadership responsibilities related to the implementation of the Chemical Weapons Convention (hereinafter “the Convention”).
3. The overall objective of the course is help the Member States to build capacity to develop in-depth knowledge and leadership skills in integrated chemicals management, including in the areas of chemical safety, security, and sustainability.
4. The course will sponsor up to 15 participants from Member States whose economies are either developing or in transition.

Basic structure of the programme

- (a) The programme features the following structure: Day 1: Opening, lectures on the Convention, introduction to the concept of integrated chemicals management, and related challenges and trends in the global chemical industry.
- (b) Day 2: Lectures on coping with and anticipating changes in the global chemicals market through integrated chemicals management, an integrated approach to chemical safety and security, convergent trends in the Chemical Weapons Convention and the Biological Weapons Convention, integrated chemicals management, and sustainable industry development. Day 2 will also feature peer interaction and insights from the latest developments in this field.

- (c) Day 3: Lectures on topics related to integrated chemicals management: experience of relevant international organisations, management of chemical the supply chain, and executive leadership on integrated chemicals management, with a focus on role models and lessons learned.
- (d) Day 4: Study visit to a chemical facility, course evaluation, and closing.

Sponsorship

5. Sponsorship will be provided by the Secretariat to a limited number of participants from Member States whose economies are either developing or in transition. The sponsorship will cover costs of travel, medical insurance, and accommodation. Sponsored participants will be also provided with a limited subsistence allowance to cover meals and miscellaneous costs. Further details regarding the accommodation and other logistical arrangements will be issued to all confirmed participants at a later date. Sponsored participants who do not intend to use the accommodation arranged by the Secretariat are requested to indicate as such as soon as possible, so that the Secretariat will not incur hotel cancellation fees. In any case, the Secretariat will not cover the costs of any accommodation that it has not arranged.
6. Participants are requested to obtain any necessary visas before travelling to the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland. The cost of visa applications will be reimbursed to participants upon production of original receipts. The Secretariat will send information to participants regarding visa applications.
7. The Secretariat will not pay for medical assistance. Therefore, participants should be fit for travel. All participants taking prescribed medication should arrive with sufficient supplies for the duration of the events.
8. When making travel arrangements for sponsored participants, the Secretariat will seek the most economical options. The Secretariat will purchase tickets and send them to participants. Participants will be allowed to purchase tickets locally only if this leads to further savings for the Secretariat and if the Secretariat authorises it. Sponsored participants shall bear all costs resulting from any changes they make once the Secretariat has purchased the tickets. Non-sponsored participants will be requested to make their own travel and accommodation arrangements, although the Secretariat can, if necessary, arrange accommodation. In order for the Secretariat to keep costs to a minimum, sponsored participants are expected to arrive no earlier than Sunday, 23 September 2018 and to depart no later than Friday, 28 September 2018.
9. The Secretariat strongly encourages Member States to nominate non-sponsored participants to the programme.

Eligibility requirements and selection procedure

10. Applications will be carefully screened on the basis of the criteria specified in paragraph 2 above. Eligible candidates from government, industry, or other institutions who have work experience in or who interact with the chemical industry in their country are encouraged to apply.

11. All course activities will be conducted in English, and no interpretation services of any kind will be provided. Participants are therefore expected to have a good command of the English language, both written and oral.
12. Nominations of female candidates are strongly encouraged.

Application procedure

13. Candidates who are interested in applying for the programme are invited to fill out the forms in Annex to this Note. Applications that are incomplete or improperly filled out cannot be considered.
14. Applications should be submitted to the Secretariat, via the respective Member State's National Authority or Permanent Representation to the OPCW, no later than Friday, 10 August 2018. Once endorsed, the Permanent Representation should then send the application to the Director, International Cooperation and Assistance Division, OPCW, Johan de Wittlaan 32, 2517 JR The Hague, the Netherlands. Applications may also be sent by email to icb@opcw.org indicating "Executive Programme" in the subject line of the message.
15. Additional information about this programme may be obtained from Ms Halimatussaadiah Mat Som, Programme Officer (tel: +31 (0)70 416 3260; email: halimatus.matsom@opcw.org).
