

NOTE BY THE DIRECTOR-GENERAL

DAY OF REMEMBRANCE FOR ALL VICTIMS OF CHEMICAL WARFARE
26 NOVEMBER 2018

1. The Conference of the States Parties (hereinafter “the Conference”) at its Twentieth Session decided that the Day of Remembrance for All Victims of Chemical Warfare would be observed on 30 November, commencing in 2016, or, when appropriate, on the first day of the regular session of the Conference, in accordance with its decision C-20/DEC.10 (dated 3 December 2015).
2. The commemoration will provide an opportunity to pay tribute to the victims of chemical warfare, as well as to reaffirm the commitment of the OPCW to exclude completely the possibility of the use of chemical weapons, through the implementation of the provisions of the Chemical Weapons Convention, thereby promoting the goals of peace, security, and multilateralism.
3. The programme for the Day of Remembrance will include the following:
 - (a) a commemorative session in the Ieper Room, including statements by the Chairperson of the Conference, who will chair the session; the Director-General of the OPCW, H.E. Mr Fernando Arias; the Secretary-General of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Netherlands, H.E. Ms Yoka Brandt, and the Mayor of The Hague, H.E. Ms Pauline Krikke.
 - (b) the laying of wreaths at the memorial site; and
 - (c) the observance of one minute of silence at the memorial site.
4. The invitees will include representatives of States Parties to the OPCW, the Government of the Host Country, the Municipality of The Hague, and international organisations.
5. Additional information may be obtained from Mr João Palma Fialho, Protocol Officer, who can be reached at +31 (0)70 416 3383.
