NOTE BY THE TECHNICAL SECRETARIAT

COURSE FOR MEMBER STATES IN THE LATIN AMERICA AND CARIBBEAN REGION ON CHEMICAL SAFETY AND SECURITY MANAGEMENT IN LABORATORIES
BUENOS AIRES, ARGENTINA
2 – 6 DECEMBER 2019

1. The Technical Secretariat (hereinafter “the Secretariat”) of the Organisation for the Prohibition of Chemical Weapons (OPCW) wishes to invite applications from representatives of chemistry laboratories in Member States in the Latin America and the Caribbean region to attend a course aimed at promoting chemical safety and security in laboratories.

2. The course will be organised by the National Authority of Argentina with the support of the OPCW, and is intended for the personnel working on the application of occupational safety measures in chemical, biochemical, microbiological and other relevant laboratories (engaging the use of chemicals) to provide them with knowledge about safety and security aspects. The course will be held from 2 to 6 December 2019 at the Instituto Nacional de Tecnología Industrial (INTI) in Buenos Aires, Argentina.

3. Overall, the structure and content of the course have been adjusted according to the training needs of the region. The course will focus on the following modules, including theoretical lectures and practical/demonstration sessions:

(a) introduction to chemical safety and security;
(b) chemical safety in laboratories;
(c) environmental pollution and occupational toxicology;
(d) handling and storage of chemicals;
(e) health and safety in the use of chemicals;
(f) hazardous waste management;
(g) safety devices and personal protection;
(h) laboratory emergencies;
(i) GHS\(^1\) and safety management systems;
(j) design and construction of laboratories; and
(k) OPCW work in building capacity for ensuring chemical safety and security and preventing the re-emergence of chemical weapons.

4. To ensure that participants gain a profound understanding of the topics and exercises taught during the course, in a way that they can use and disseminate the methods and techniques learned, a final exam will take place at the end of the course.

5. All course activities will be conducted in Spanish.

6. The course will accommodate a maximum of 20 participants from Member States in the Latin America and Caribbean region. The Secretariat will select participants and notify the successful candidates, who will then receive an official invitation from the Secretariat. The course can also accommodate an additional number of approximately five self-sponsored participants, for whom tuition, as well as coffee breaks and lunches, will be provided free of charge.

7. For all participants, the Secretariat will cover the costs of international travel, medical insurance, and visas, and will provide a terminal allowance, as well as a daily allowance to cover meals and/or incidental expenses, in accordance with OPCW rules. When making international travel arrangements, the Secretariat will seek the most economical options. It will purchase and send tickets to participants. The Secretariat will not cover expenses unrelated to the meeting or that result from unauthorised changes to travel arrangements.

8. Accommodation will be provided to all sponsored participants. Information regarding the accommodation will be sent to participants together with the acceptance letter.

9. Participants are requested to obtain any necessary visas before travelling to Argentina. As noted above, the Secretariat will cover the costs of visas. It will reimburse participants upon production of original receipts.

10. Participants should:
(a) hold a professional degree in chemistry/biology/physics or a related engineering field, and have extensive experience working in or managing chemical or related laboratories;
(b) be involved in activities related to chemical safety management, especially in laboratories, in their home countries or other States Parties;
(c) be willing to disseminate the knowledge gained during the course to assist the States Parties in the implementation of the Chemical Weapons Convention; and
(d) be proficient in Spanish.

---

\(^{1}\) GHS = Globally Harmonized System of Classification and Labelling of Chemicals.
11. Female candidates are encouraged to apply.

12. Eligible candidates from government, industry, or academia who have work experience in managing laboratories in their country are especially encouraged to apply. Applications will be carefully screened on the basis of the criteria specified in paragraph 10 above.

13. Applicants to the course are invited to complete the application form annexed to this Note, making sure to provide all the contact details it requests, and in particular a valid e-mail address and/or fax number. Applicants who fail to provide all of the supporting documentation requested in section 5 of the application form cannot be considered. The completed form, together with a detailed curriculum vitae and a recommendation from the National Authority or Permanent Representation of the applicant’s country to the OPCW, should be sent to the Director of the International Cooperation and Assistance Division, OPCW, Johan de Wittlaan 32, 2517 JR The Hague, the Netherlands by email to icb@opcw.org (quoting “Laboratory Safety Course, Argentina, 2019” in the subject line). All applications duly endorsed by the National Authority or Permanent Representation must be received by the Secretariat no later than 18 October 2019.

14. In addition, by the same deadline, applicants are required to complete the application through Eventus, the OPCW event management system (https://apps.opcw.org/eventus). Applicants must first create an account and then register for the event.

15. Additional information may be obtained from the International Cooperation Branch, International Cooperation and Assistance Division, at the email address icb@opcw.org or at the contact telephone numbers given below:
