Recalling that, in respect of invitations to international organisations, specialised agencies and other international bodies to attend the First Session of the Conference, the Commission, in its Final Report, paragraph 23.1, while recognising that the final decision regarding their attendance will be taken by the Conference, authorised the Executive Secretary of the Commission to extend invitations to a number of them, listed in PC-XVI/FS/2, to attend the First Session,

Recalling further that, in respect of invitations to non-governmental organisations, including associations of the chemical industry (“NGOs”), the Commission, in its Final Report, paragraph 23.2, and while recognising that the Conference will have final responsibility for the modalities governing NGOs, invited applications from NGOs describing the criteria for applicants and the status of NGOs attending the Conference.
