1. For the social security scheme established by or conducted under the authority of the OPCW, the OPCW and the officials of the OPCW to whom the above-mentioned scheme applies shall be exempt from all compulsory contributions to the social security organisations of the Kingdom of the Netherlands. Consequently, they shall not be covered by the social security regulations of the Kingdom of the Netherlands.

2. Any provident fund established by or conducted under the authority of the OPCW shall enjoy legal capacity in the Kingdom of the Netherlands if the OPCW so requests and shall enjoy the same exemptions, privileges and immunities as the OPCW itself.

3. The provisions of paragraph 1 of this Article shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to spouses and dependent relatives forming part of the households of the persons referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, unless they are employed in the Kingdom of the Netherlands by an employer other than the OPCW or receive Netherlands social security benefit.

ARTICLE 23
EMPLOYMENT

Spouses and members of the family forming part of the households of officials of the OPCW shall be granted temporary working permits for the duration of the employment of those officials with the OPCW in the Kingdom of the Netherlands.

ARTICLE 24
ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS ON PRIVILEGES AND IMMUNITIES

1. The privileges and immunities granted under the provisions of this Agreement are conferred in the interests of the OPCW and not for the personal benefit of the individuals themselves. It is the duty of the OPCW and all persons enjoying such privileges and immunities to observe in all other respects the laws and regulations of the Kingdom of the Netherlands.
2. This Agreement shall apply irrespective of whether the Government maintains or does not maintain diplomatic relations with the State concerned and irrespective of whether the State concerned grants a similar privilege or immunity to the diplomatic envoys or citizens of the Kingdom of the Netherlands.

3. The privileges and immunities granted to officials of the OPCW and experts under the provisions of this Agreement are granted on the understanding that the OPCW shall waive the immunity of the persons concerned in any circumstances in which the OPCW considers that such immunity would impede the course of justice, and whenever it can be waived without prejudice to the purpose for which it was granted.

4. The OPCW shall cooperate at all times with the appropriate authorities of the Kingdom of the Netherlands to facilitate the proper administration of justice and shall prevent any abuse of the privileges and immunities granted under the provisions of this Agreement by officials of the OPCW.

5. Should the Government consider that an abuse by an official of the OPCW or an expert of a privilege or immunity conferred by this Agreement has occurred, the Director-General shall, upon request, consult with the appropriate Netherlands authorities to determine whether any such abuse has occurred. If such consultations fail to achieve a result satisfactory to the Director-General and to the Government, the matter shall be determined in accordance with the procedure set out in Article 26, paragraph 2, of this Agreement.

6. The Director-General shall have the right and the duty to waive the immunity of any official of the OPCW or of an expert in cases when the immunity would impede the course of justice and can be waived without prejudice to the interests of the OPCW. In respect of the Director-General, the OPCW has a similar right and duty, which shall be performed by the Executive Council.

ARTICLE 25
INTERNATIONAL RESPONSIBILITY OF THE KINGDOM OF THE NETHERLANDS

The Kingdom of the Netherlands shall not incur by reason of the location of the headquarters of the OPCW within its territory any international responsibility for acts or omissions of the OPCW or of its officials acting or abstaining from acting within the scope of their functions, other than the international responsibility which the Kingdom of the Netherlands would incur on the same footing as other States Parties.
ARTICLE 26
SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES

1. The OPCW shall make provision for appropriate methods of settlement of:

   (a) disputes arising out of contracts and disputes of a private law character to which the OPCW is a party; and

   (b) disputes involving an official of the OPCW or an expert who, by reason of his official position, enjoys immunity, if such immunity has not been waived by the OPCW.

2. Any dispute between the OPCW and the Government concerning the interpretation or application of this Agreement, or any question affecting the headquarters or the relationship between the OPCW and the Government, which is not settled amicably, shall be referred for final decision to a tribunal of three arbitrators, at the request of either Party to the dispute. Each Party shall appoint one arbitrator. The third, who shall be chairman of the tribunal, is to be chosen by the first two arbitrators.

3. If one of the Parties fails to appoint an arbitrator and has not taken steps to do so within two months following a request from the other Party to make such an appointment, the other Party may request the President of the International Court of Justice to make such an appointment.

4. Should the first two arbitrators fail to agree upon the third within two months following their appointment, either Party may request the President of the International Court of Justice to make such an appointment.

5. The tribunal shall conduct its proceedings in accordance with the Permanent Court of Arbitration Optional Rules for Arbitration Involving International Organisations and States, as in force on the date of the signature of this Agreement.

6. The tribunal shall reach its decision by a majority of votes. Such decision shall be final and binding on the Parties to the dispute.

ARTICLE 27
OPERATION OF THIS AGREEMENT

1. This Agreement shall be construed in the light of its primary purpose of enabling the OPCW at its headquarters in the Kingdom of the Netherlands fully and efficiently to discharge its responsibilities and fulfill its purposes.

2. Whenever this Agreement imposes obligations on the appropriate authorities of the Kingdom of the Netherlands, the ultimate responsibility for the fulfilment of such obligations shall rest with the Government.
ARTICLE 28
TERMINATION OF THE AGREEMENT

This Agreement shall cease to be in force by mutual consent of the OPCW and the Government.

ARTICLE 29
AMENDMENTS

1. This Agreement may be amended at any time.
2. Any such amendment shall be agreed by mutual consent and shall be effected by an Exchange of Notes.
3. Consultations with respect to amendment of this Agreement may be entered into by the OPCW and the Government at the request of either Party.

ARTICLE 30
THE STATUS OF THE SEPARATE ARRANGEMENT

The Separate Arrangement concluded together with this Agreement forms an integral part thereof. Any reference to the Agreement includes the Separate Arrangement.

ARTICLE 31
ENTRY INTO FORCE

1. This Agreement shall enter into force on the day after both Parties have notified each other in writing that the legal requirements for entry into force have been complied with.
2. With respect to the Kingdom of the Netherlands, this Agreement shall apply to the part of the Kingdom in Europe only.

For the Kingdom of the Netherlands
1. Article 11, paragraph 2(c): "considerable expenditure"

For the purposes of exemption from value-added tax on any goods or services necessary for the OPCW's official activities involving considerable expenditure, "considerable expenditure" means, in accordance with the regulations in force, an amount above the threshold of Dfl. 500 per invoice.

2. Article 11, paragraph 4: "conditions agreed with the Government"

The Government hereby sets forth the conditions under which goods acquired or imported under the terms set out in paragraph 4 of Article 11 may be sold, given away, or otherwise disposed of.

(a) As a general principle, the Government grants the OPCW a fixed time period of five years for reducing to zero the value on sale/disposal, for the purpose of duties and tax exemptions, of all movable goods, except motor vehicles. After this five-year time period, goods may be sold free of taxes and duties. This "reduction" of all goods to zero value in a five-year period is accomplished in steps of 10% for each period of six months. However, if the local market value of the above-mentioned goods has declined to an amount lower than calculated above, this lower amount shall prevail.

(b) It is also understood as a general principle that the OPCW has the right to sell any of its goods at any time to a person or entity who/which is entitled in the Kingdom of the Netherlands to an exemption from taxes and/or duties on those goods. At an appropriate time, the Government will provide information concerning the standing procedure required to handle the exemption in those cases, not only for motor vehicles, but also for other goods.

(c) In the case of motor vehicles, the Government grants the OPCW the following rights:

(i) motor vehicles imported tax-exempt from within the European Union may be sold two years after their acquisition on condition that those cars be sold to entrepreneurs who have to take into account the standing procedures in the Kingdom of the Netherlands with respect to VAT; and
(ii) Motor vehicles imported from outside the European Union exempt from duties and taxes may be sold two years after their acquisition on condition that those cars be sold to entrepreneurs who have to take into account the standing procedures in the Kingdom of the Netherlands with respect to VAT and import duties.

(d) With respect to data processing and communications equipment, the Government grants the OPCW a fixed-term period of five years for reducing the value of the equipment to zero, as described in subparagraph 2(a) above. After a period of two years, the OPCW is also granted the right to sell the equipment to entrepreneurs who have to take into account the standing procedure in the Kingdom of the Netherlands with respect to VAT and/or import duties. If in practice certain equipment turns out to be no longer of use to the OPCW within a period shorter than two years, while it could still be sold to an entrepreneur, the Government is willing to favour a solution on an ad hoc basis. If the local market value of the above-mentioned goods has declined to an amount lower than calculated above, this lower amount shall prevail.

(e) It is understood that the OPCW also has the right to dispose of exempt purchased goods at any moment without payment or taxes and/or duties, through exportation to a country outside the European Union or by destroying them.

(f) The OPCW shall inform the Government of its disposal of exempt purchased goods. The procedure for informing the Government shall be effected in such a manner as to minimise the administrative burden.

3. Officials of the OPCW

(a) Subject to the provisions of Article 18 of the Headquarters Agreement, officials of the OPCW who are neither Netherlands citizens nor persons permanently resident in the Kingdom of the Netherlands shall, as far as the levying of Netherlands income tax is concerned, be taxed only on domestic income within the meaning of sections 48 and 49 of the 1964 Income Tax Act, received outside the OPCW function. As far as the levying of Netherlands wealth tax is concerned, only domestic wealth within the meaning of sections 12 and 13 of the 1964 Wealth Tax Act will be taxed. In this respect, the officials of the OPCW concerned are subject to the same treatment as members of diplomatic missions.

(b) Officials of the OPCW of grade P-5 and above shall be granted exemption from VAT, under article 33 in conjunction with article 36 of the Regulations implementing the 1959 State Taxes Act (Algemene wet inzake rijksbelastingen). The condition of reciprocity is not required.

(c) Officials of the OPCW who are eligible for the privileges and immunities laid down in the Vienna Convention shall be granted exemption from all taxes and duties if they import into or purchase within the European Union a motor vehicle intended for private use. After taxes and duties have been paid on the residual value of such a vehicle or after the car has been sold outside the European Union, another motor vehicle may be purchased tax-free. The exemption also applies to motor vehicle tax and excise duty on engine fuels. Officials of grade P-5 and above who live with their spouse shall also be granted exemption from all taxes related to a second motor vehicle in accordance with the regulations in force.

(d) Officials of the OPCW who are eligible for the privileges and immunities laid down in the Vienna Convention shall be granted diplomatic exemption from municipal taxes, including the user component of property tax.

(e) Officials of the OPCW shall, in accordance with the regulations in force, have relief from import duties, taxes, except payments for services, in respect of their furniture and personal effects and the right to export furniture and personal effects with relief from duty on termination of their duties in the Netherlands. Personal effects may include a reasonable number of cars that have been in use in the household and that are older than six months.

(f) If the regulations relating to diplomatic staff or international officials who are deemed to be of the same status as officials of the OPCW are amended, the regulations applicable to officials of the OPCW will also be amended.

4. Additional provision

(a) If and to the extent that the Government shall, in the future, enter into an agreement with any intergovernmental organisation containing terms or conditions more favourable to that organisation than comparable terms or conditions in this Agreement, the Government shall extend such more favourable terms or conditions to the OPCW or to any person entitled to privileges and immunities under this Agreement.

(b) The Government shall inform the OPCW of the office designated by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs to serve as official contact point and to be primarily responsible for all matters in relation to this Agreement. The OPCW shall be informed promptly about this designation and of any subsequent changes in this regard.
