NOTE BY THE DIRECTOR-GENERAL

DAY OF REMEMBRANCE FOR ALL VICTIMS OF CHEMICAL WARFARE 29 APRIL 2010

1. The Conference of States Parties (hereinafter “the Conference”) at its Tenth Session Session (paragraph 23.3 of C-10/5, dated 11 November 2005) decided that a memorial Day of Remembrance for all Victims of Chemical Warfare would be observed on 29 April each year—the date in 1997 on which the Chemical Weapons Convention entered into force.
2. This commemoration will provide an opportunity to pay tribute to the victims of chemical warfare, as well as to reaffirm the commitment of the Organisation for the Prohibition of Chemical Weapons (OPCW) to the elimination of the threat of chemical weapons, thereby promoting the goals of peace, security, and multilateralism.
3. This year, the programme for the Day of Remembrance will include the following:
  - (a) a commemorative session in the Ieper Room, including statements by H.E. Mr Vaidotas Verba, Chairperson of the Conference; H.E. Mr Rogelio Pfirter, Director-General of the OPCW; Mr Ed Kronenburg, Secretary-General of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Netherlands; and Mr Jozias van Aartsen, Mayor of The Hague;
  - (b) a laying of flowers at the memorial site; and
  - (c) a reception.
4. The invitees will include representatives from the Member States of the OPCW, from the Government of the Host Country, from the Municipality of The Hague, from non-governmental and international organisations, and a delegation of young students from the various international schools located in the area of The Hague.
