NOTE BY THE DIRECTOR-GENERAL

DAY OF REMEMBRANCE FOR ALL VICTIMS OF CHEMICAL WARFARE 29 APRIL 2014

1. The Conference of the States Parties (hereinafter “the Conference”) at its Tenth Session (paragraph 23.3 of C-10/5, dated 11 November 2005) decided that a memorial Day of Remembrance for All Victims of Chemical Warfare would be observed on 29 April each year—the date in 1997 on which the Chemical Weapons Convention (hereinafter “the Convention”) entered into force.
2. The commemoration will provide an opportunity to pay tribute to the victims of chemical warfare, as well as to reaffirm the commitment of the OPCW to exclude completely the possibility of the use of chemical weapons, through the implementation of the provisions of the Convention, thereby promoting the goals of peace, security, and multilateralism.
3. The programme for the Day of Remembrance will include the following:
 - (a) a commemorative session in the Ieper Room, including statements by H.E. Mr Sa'ad Abdul Majeed Ibrahim Al-Ali, Chairperson of the Conference, who will also chair the session; H.E. Mr Ahmet Üzümcü, Director-General of the OPCW; H.E. Mrs Renée Jones-Bos from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Netherlands; and Mr Jozias van Aartsen, Mayor of The Hague;
 - (b) the observance of one minute of silence at the memorial site;
 - (c) the laying of wreaths;
 - (d) the unveiling of the Halabja monument, commemorating the victims of the attack with chemical weapons on the city of Halabja; and
 - (e) a reception.
4. The invitees will include representatives of States Parties to the Convention, the Government of the Host Country, the Municipality of The Hague, non-governmental and international organisations, and a delegation of students from various international schools located in The Hague.
5. Additional information may be obtained from the Protocol and Visa Branch. The contact person is Mr Rutger van den Hoven, Head of Protocol and Visa, who can be reached at +31 (0)70 416 3772.
