NOTE BY THE TECHNICAL SECRETARIAT

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS FOR A COURSE ON ANALYTICAL SKILLS DEVELOPMENT AT THE DEFENCE SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY GROUP
DEPARTMENT OF DEFENCE
MELBOURNE, AUSTRALIA
21 NOVEMBER – 2 DECEMBER 2016

Purpose of the course

1. The OPCW Technical Secretariat (hereinafter “the Secretariat”) wishes to inform Member States in the Association of South-East Asian Nations (SAARC) and South Asian Association for Regional Cooperation (ASEAN) regions that it will hold an analytical skills development course (ASDC) at the Defence Science and Technology Group in Melbourne, Australia, from 21 November to 2 December 2016. The aims of the course are to assist qualified analytical chemists from Member States whose economies are developing or in transition in acquiring further experience and practical knowledge; to facilitate the analysis of chemicals related to national implementation of the Chemical Weapons Convention (hereinafter “the Convention”); to enhance national capacities in these Member States by offering training in analytical chemistry to personnel from industry, academic institutions, and government laboratories; to facilitate the adoption of good laboratory practices; and to broaden the pool of human resources from which National Authorities and the Secretariat can draw in the future.

Content

2. The ASDC course will have two parts:

(a) The first week will be focused on basic training, and on gaining hands-on experience in gas chromatography (GC) and gas chromatography-mass spectrometry (GC-MS). Participants will receive theoretical and practical training in GC and GC-MS, covering hardware, system validation and optimisation, and trouble-shooting.

(b) The focus during the second week will be on the preparation of environmental samples and on GC and GC-MS analyses of such samples for chemicals related to the Convention. During this week, participants will be provided with intensive hands-on training in the preparation of different sample matrices for later analysis by GC with element-selective detectors and by GC-MS in electron-impact and chemical-ionisation modes. Participants will also be introduced to a range of extraction, clean-up, and derivatisation procedures.

3. The ASDC will accommodate a maximum of 12 participants from Member States whose economies are developing or are in transition. The Secretariat will select the participants based on their qualifications and experience. Only selected candidates will be notified by the Secretariat, before 12 October 2016. The Secretariat encourages qualified female candidates to apply for this course.

Sponsorship

4. The cost of the course itself, as well as accommodation for all participants, will be covered by the Secretariat. In addition, the Secretariat will pay for international travel, meals, and medical and travel insurance for all participants.

Admission requirements

5. The course is open to those who:

(a) have a minimum of a first degree (BSc or equivalent) in chemistry or analytical chemistry from a recognised university or institution, with relevant practical and theoretical experience in analytical chemistry, especially on GC and GC-MS;

(b) are citizens of Member States whose economies are developing or in transition; and

(c) have been working in a chemical laboratory or research institution in their home country for at least five years.

6. The course will be conducted in English. Candidates must therefore have a strong command of both written and spoken English. Any candidate who is found, upon arrival, not to meet this requirement may not be allowed to continue in the course.

Selection procedure

7. Applications will be carefully screened on the basis of the criteria specified in paragraph 5 above. Only the most suitable applicants will be interviewed. Applicants who have already participated in ASDC programmes will NOT be considered for selection.
